WILL COMPLETE POOR FARM ROAD

The board of supervisors met in regular session Monday, January 10, at 10 o'clock a. m., there being present Joseph M. Francis, presiding, Jas. T. Casey, Wm. H. Brown, John MacBain and C. V. Thompson.

District Attorney Swart presented a resolution ordering the sum of $6,000 transferred from the unapportioned fund of the county to a specific fund to be known as the Beresford to Redwood City State Highway fund.

The resolution was adopted on motion of MacBain, seconded by Casey.

A claim of $2,416.17 presented by the Town of Redwood City, as its portion of the delinquent taxes collected by the county tax collector jointly for the county and City of Redwood, was ordered referred to the district attorney.

A claim of Wobber and Company for books furnished the county auditor, and amounting to $235.90, was also referred to the district attorney.

Two claims of J. E. Allen and Company of Petaluma, Cal., amounting to $150 each, and being balances due on a grader purchased in 1913 by the late Supervisor Blackburn, were ordered referred to Supervisor Thompson of the Fifth township.

Supervisor Brown introduced the following resolution, which was adopted on motion of Brown, seconded by Thompson:

Whereas, this Board of Supervisors has heretofore set aside the sum of $30,500.00 for the purpose of constructing a road from Hilsborough city limits to Crystal Springs Lakes; and

Whereas, a portion of the course of this road has been changed to what is known as the County Farm to Crystal Springs Lakes Road and a portion of said funds are necessary for the construction of the road on this changed right of way; and

Whereas, it is necessary at the present time to make a temporary transfer of funds from said original Hillsborough city limits to Crystal Springs Lakes Road fund to the Second Road District funds;

Now, therefore, be it ordered that the sum of four thousand ($4,000.00) dollars be temporarily transferred from what is known as the Hillsborough city limits to Crystal Springs Road fund to the Second Road District fund until such time as said Second Road District fund shall be in condition to re-transfer said funds to said original fund.

Dated, January 10, 1916.

The auditor's report showing the aggregate amount of allowance that can be made against the several funds of the county for the month of January, 1916, was ordered filed.

A resolution fixing the rate of interest at 2 percent on the county's moneys deposited in any bank or banking corporation, was adopted, on motion of Brown, seconded by Thompson.

A communication was received from F. F. Sarcander of Purissima, asking for an extension of thirty days in which to pay his county liquor license.

The request was granted on motion of MacBain, seconded by Casey, the time of the extension dating from January 1st.

A communication from the Tourist Association of California, asking the board to provide a number of attractive pictures of San Mateo county scenes for the State Exposition building in Los Angeles, was ordered filed.

Chairman Francis reported that the fill at Montara had been completely washed out, doing considerable damage to the county highway at that place. At his request the members of the board decided to visit the place with Surveyor Neuman to look over the situation and ascertain the damage that had been done.

The board adjourned at 1:40 p. m., to meet again Monday, January 17th, at 10 a. m.

"THE FAITHFUL CLUB WOMEN" BY MRS. HENRY C. FINKLER

At the reception tendered Mrs. H. C. Finkler, the president, and the new members of the Woman's Club last Thursday, the former gave an address entitled "The Faithful Club Women." She spoke in brief of the good results of being a club woman.

"From the democratic principles of club life," she said "all personal gains must be eliminated and when one has overcome timidity and sensitiveness and works for the good of needy communities, she is advancing a step in club work.

"A club woman can be just as good a housewife and just as good a mother and better, for in this advanced age, women are progressing so much in every way that they are far better able to cope with many subjects which were such problems to women a few years ago."

Mrs. Finkler mentioned the splendid things club women are accomplishing today—the children who have been helped and provided for, the children of the sweat-shops, factories and coal mines, and the sick and helpless ones.

"Woman's clubs are affiliated with many of the gravest questions of today and through them, many of the most important issues are decided."

In closing, Mrs. Finkler thanked those who have helped her make the Redwood City Woman's Club a success, especially Mrs. George A. Merrill, the vice president, Mrs. Frank Wentworth, the secretary, the board of directors and the different chairmen of the committees.

DUCK HUNTING

Duck Season now is open
And the sport was all the rage,
Everybody went out hunting,
From the Sheriff to the page.

George Genochio he is spokesman
For the boys who like the game,
He is out upon the duck ponds
And is noted for his fame.

He has a bunch of pikers
Who says the ducks fly high,
They miss them on the water,
And they miss them in the sky.

He travels to Mt. Eden,
A secluded little spot,
And shoots at lofty Spoonbills
Until his gun gets hot.

The Sprig are rather timid,
And a bird that's very shy,
But he always gets the limit
When he takes his old friend Guy.

Yes, Guy, he is a darling,
O! sporty boy is he,
Only one eye it is missing,
Out of the other he cannot see.

Still he seems to get the limit,
And is noted for his fame,
He is very fond of out door life,
When it comes to the shooting game.

The birds, they seem to scatter,
And do not bunch together,
And all the old time sporting men
Say you can blame it to the weather.

I hope it shortly will improve,
For each and every one,
As I like to go out hunting,
Just for the sport and fun.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ACTIVE AFTER MOVIES

Lasky and Keystone Film Companies Make Their Requirements Known

The Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Company, one of the largest film producing firms in Southern California has written to the local Chamber of Commerce in answer to a letter sent by the Chamber a week ago asking for a description of the needs of his company in connection with his removal from the Universal City. While giving nothing definite, the Lasky letter conveys the information that the Lasky company employs about 250 people, all of whom would be carried by the company in the event of a removal. The pay roll of the company is $20,000 a week or $1000000 annually.

More than one-half of the employees of the company are married, says Lasky, which would practically mean an addition of one thousand people to the community near which the company locates.

Lasky says, "This company might consider a proposition to move if it were made attractive enough."

This makes the second company to communicate with the local Chamber, the Keystone Comedy Company having written an acknowledgment of the Chamber's letter asking more definite information as to the needs of the movie concerns. Mack Sennet, director of the Keystone says, as does Lasky, that his company is also ready to consider propositions to furnish sites or other inducements.

LITTLE MISS ENTERTAINS AT NINTH ANNIVERSARY

Birthday Party for Her Little Friends a Happy Event

Miss Inez Jamieson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jamieson, celebrated her ninth birthday last Saturday by inviting eighteen little friends to a party at her home. The little ladies amused themselves with games, singing and dancing until four o'clock when the best of the party came in the shape of the well laden dining table. Each little girl was given one piece of a birthday cake and the holder of the other part was her partner. When each had found her partner they marched to their places at the table.

In the center of the table there was a huge bowl containing a present for every child, a string extending from each plate to the bowl, tying each present. At each plate was a fancy basket of candy and bonbons. There was a regular birthday cake with nine lighted candles. The prize in the cake was captured by Henrietta McKay. The bean-guessings contest were won by Marie Deleau and Katherine Hahir.

About 5:30 they all bade their little hostess good-bye after wishing her many happy returns of the day. Miss Inez received many pretty presents.

Among those invited were the following: Katherine Hahir, Marie Deleau, Helen Soto, Delphine Simmons, Rachel Graham, Georgie Graves, Elizabeth Reeder, Florence Perry, Alice Perry, Della Lanfear, Pearl Beer, Margaret Rice, Henrietta McKay, Margaret McKay, Emelie Jones, Ida Stafford, Margaret Holmquist and Inez Jamieson.

BROOK TROUT HATCHERY FOR SAN MATEO COUNTY

Eleven Million Eggs Ordered and Entire Output Contracted For

Notwithstanding inclement weather several very important sales have been made along the line of the boulevard through La Honda. One of the most important of these is a sale, through the University Realty Company, of a portion of the beautiful flat below the Hanson and Hayward log cabins. The purchasers, S. A. Wells and R. W. Krobitzsch, plan the installation of a commercial fish hatchery. They have already placed orders for eleven million fish eggs to hatch the gamiest of brook trout.

A dam will be installed which, besides creating a beautiful pool, will permit water to be carried by gravity to the site of the hatchery.

The proprietors plan to make the place a famous resort and will endeavor to make conditions as nearly as possible conform to actual trout fishing in the wilderness.

They have already placed contracts for their entire output, exclusive of the amounts of fish which they figure to be purchased by anglers in quest of sure basketfuls.

The new road across the mountains will be opened in the early spring, and thousands of motorists will be trying out the most scenic of San Mateo County's boulevards. It is anticipated that the trout farm will be one of the greatest attractions of the district.

That the promoters have advance information as to development of the region into another Burlingame is indicated by the fact that their troutery will be situated on what in the spring will be a new automobile boulevard extending from Redwood over the ridge into La Honda canyon and thence up the coast to Colma.

This is further borne out by a recent purchase made in the section by Dr. William F. Blake. Mrs. William H. Crocker is also said to have bought a neighboring tract of 660 acres. Farther down San Gregorio creek a tract of nearly 2,000 acres has been acquired by Theodore Hoover, mining engineer and brother of Herbert C. Hoover, head of the Belgian relief fund.

MRS. ELLEN R. THOMPSON DIES IN SAN FRANCISCO MONDAY

Had Spent Her Girlhood Here and Planned to Return

All that was mortal of the late Mrs. Ellen R. Thompson, wife of George H. Thompson, who passed away at her home on Hancock street,San Francisco Monday after a short illness of only a few hours was interred in Cypress Lawn cemetery on Wednesday. For many years she had been troubled with asthma and this disease brought on an attack of heart trouble which caused her death. Mrs. Thompson resided with her husband, who is a marine engineer, and sixteen year old son who is attending the Lick High School in San Francisco. It was Mrs. Thompson's intention of moving to Redwood City and erecting a fine home in Dumbarton Oaks when the boy completed his high school course in order to be near Stanford University to which institution she intended to send the lad. Mrs. Thompson was a woman of high ideals, a sincere church worker and unostentatious in bestowing gifts upon those in need. Mrs. Thompson was born in West Union fifty years ago and spent her girlhood there. She married Mr. Thompson twenty-four years ago. Her married life was extremely happy. She was the daughter of the late Jacob Kreiss, one of the old and respected pioneers of this county. The deceased is survived by her husband and one son, Harold Thompson, and two brothers, George H. Kreiss of this city and Henry Kreiss of Goose Lake, Nevada.

WILLIAM H. HANSON PASSES AWAY AT ST. FRANCIS HOTEL

Only Son of the Late Charles Hanson and Held Vast Interests Here

The people of Redwood City were shocked late yesterday afternoon when the news reached here of the death of William H. Hanson, the well known capitalist and lumberman, at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco at noon. Mr. Hanson had been ailing for some years from gout but his friends were not alarmed at this. The news of his death came as a great surprise. He usually spent the summer here at his beautiful home on Arguello street and took apartments at the St. Francis Hotel in the city for the winter months. Mr. Hanson was the only child of the late Charles Hanson, the pioneer lumberman and founder of the Tacoma Mill Company. The deceased was the vice-president of the company and at the time of his death was actively engaged in other business enterprises. Mr. Hanson was born in Redwood City about 55 years ago, attended the local grammar school and was a graduate of the Brewer school at San Mateo. As a young man he took charge of his father's mills at Tacoma, running them with success for several years and gaining a thorough knowledge of the lumber business that was useful to him when in after years he became head of the institution. Mr. Hanson was very fond of travel, having circumnavigated the globe and spent many years in the capitals of the old world. Baris was his favorite city and there he spent many happy days. He was a genial man, democratic in his manner and affable to a marked degree. He loved Redwood City, the home of his youth and its associations were dear to him. He loved to mingle with the friends of his boyhood days and there was nothing that afforded him more pleasure than to go on hunting trips with a party of old friends. Mr. Hanson was fond of fishing and hunting and indulged much in this sport. The deceased leaves a vast estate valued upwards of three million of dollars. Last year he was offered the vast sum of $1,500,000 for his water front holdings at Tacoma. The deceased is survived by a wife. He had no children. No arrangements have been made as yet for the funeral. Mr. Hanson was a charter member of Redwood Parlor, N. S. G. W. and was also a member of the Masons, Knights Templar and Shriner.

WE WILL RECEIVE OUR SHARE OF YEAR'S PROSPERITY

Letter of L. P. Behrens to Coast Banker Radiates Optimism

"The Coast Banker," the most prominent financial journal on the Pacific Coast, having the largest circulation of any similar paper west of Chicago, has the following to say about our fellow townsman, L. P. Behrens:

"After three months absence from the bank on account of a severe attack of sciatia rheumatism, we are pleased to receive from the pen of Mr. L. P. Behrens of Redwood City, the following:

"'While it is not possible at this time to set forth any definite idea of the ultimate results of the happenings and prosperity of 1916, however, things which have transpired during the year just closed, mark the United States as probably the world's greatest financial power. With the large returns from our agricultural pursuits and our enormous expansion in manufacturers, supplemented and increased by the various industries, 1916 should certainly be our banner year.

"'The Pacific Coast, and especially California with her wonderful resources, will receive her full share of this prosperity. Our valleys have been drenched with copious rains and the mountains are capped with snow, thus guaranteeing ample moisture and abundant water for all purposes.

"'As to Redwood City, I am pleased to report a steady growth, both in population and in importance. A factor in bringing this about was the expending in the last two years of about $300,000 in street work in our city together with some $2,000,000 expended by our county in building boulevards. Our banks have had a satisfactory year, which prosperity seems to have been generally enjoyed by our manufacturers and merchants. All had their full measure of prosperity and look with an optimistic eye to the future.

"'No doubt our World's Fair was a factor in increasing last year's bank clearing on the coast. However, this loss will be more than offset by the new business we will receive when the Panama Canal is again open to us. I feel justified in predicting the greatest expansion in all lines that this state has ever known. Since there are ample funds to finance all legitimate enterprises and all signs indicate better business, our people should live in harmony with themselves and peace with the rest of the world.'"

COAST SIDE ITEMS

The torrential rain on Sunday and Monday caused considerable damage and quite seriously interferred with traffic. A trestle of the Ocean Shore railroad at Montara was torn out and carried into a nearby artichoke field. The culvert in the big fill near the fog signal became stopped up and the flood rushing down from the hills formed a lake forty feet deep. The water stood six feet over the county highway which runs on an embankment of considerable height. The piles of Pilarcitos bridge were washed out. However, in spite of all handicaps the railroad company managed to get a train through Monday night and resumed its regular schedule Tuesday morning. The rain likewise did considerable damage to certain hillside farms where it washed the loose earth away.

The obstruction at the fog signal fill was removed by a charge of dynamite on Thursday afternoon. So fierce was the rush of waters when released that a part of the railroad and highway embankments were torn away. The railroad was made impassable and passengers and mail were brought to town by Jim Gray's steamer.

TRUMAN E. JEWELL PASSES TO GREAT BEYOND

Had Resided in the Grand Hotel for Thirty Years

Truman E. Jewell, a pioneer resident of California, died at his home on Arguello street early Monday morning from a sudden attack of pneumonia. Before coming to Redwood City the deceased lived at the Grand Hotel in San Francisco for over thirty years. His sister, long since deceased, was the first wife of the late Timothy Guy Phelps and when the latter was elected to Congress in the early sixties he made Mr. Jewell his secretary. During his stay in Washington he became a close friend of Abraham Lincoln who offered him important positions to trust but Jewell refused to accept them. Jewell in his reminiscent mood would tell of the many long talks he had with the martyred president at the White House. It was quite interesting to hear him tell of the numerous anecdotes related by Lincoln. Mr. Jewell was a temperate man, never having tasted liquor.

Jewell was born in Gilford, New York, and his remains were shipped to that place Tuesday for interment. His only surviving relatives are three nieces and one nephew, who it is presumed will fall heir to his wealth.

A sister died in the East lately and it is supposed she left her brother a large estate. He only returned recently from the East where he went to settle his sister's affairs. His holdings here are quite valuable. On Tuesday a thorough search of his home on Arguello street was made to ascertain if he left a will but no such document was discovered. The following day Mr. Crocker, an old time friend and confidant of the deceased, applied to Judge Hudner for permission to open his safe deposit vault in the First National Bank. The court permitted the box in the vault to be opened. A will was discovered and in the presence of Attorneys Ross and Ross and Archer Kincaid and the County Clerk, the instrument was read. Its contents will not be divulged until such time as it is filed for probate. It is believed the estate will be very large.

MENLO PARK LOCAL NEWS

The funeral of Charles A. Partridge who died at his home here on Monday took place from the Church of The Nativity on Thursday morning. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery. The deceased had been a resident of Menlo Park for the past seven years. He was a quiet unassuming man, well liked and admired by all who knew him. He was a native of Canada, aged 53 years. As a young man he went to London where he engaged in the lumber business for many years. His father, who was an official of the English government in Canada, left his children a large estate at his death. Mr. Partridge owned large realty interests in Visitacion Valley. Deceased was a brother of John Partridge, president of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in San Francisco. He is survived by a widow and two children, Charles and Edith Partridge. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in its sad bereavement.

The inheritance tax levied on the estate of the late Frederick William Sharon, who died last year is one of the largest on record in the superior court in San Francisco. The estate is appraised at $2,650,642.85 The tax is $177,172.32, which will be paid by the six beneficiaries. Mrs. Sharon's share of the tax will amount to $104,515.49. Two nieces, Edith Newlands Johnston and Janet Newlands Johnston, will pay $11, 327.33, and the sister of the deceased, Lady Florence F. Heskith, of England, and her son, Thomas, are each assessed $19,336.62. The Palace Hotel in San Francisco is owned by the Sharon estate.

For some time a corps of surveyors has been surveying in this vicinity on the east side of the tracks of the Southern Pacific Company which would indicate that the company is contemplating the construction of a third track to parallel its present double system. It is believed that owing to the jitney competition the company will electrilize the proposed new track in order to run cars every few minutes. To do this many rights-of-way will have to be secured as there is not enough space for the other rails.

Herbert Fleishhacker is erecting a large green house on his grounds at Atherton. It will be exclusively used for the propagation of orchids. Mr. Fleishhacker is a great admirer of that delicate and tender blossom and wishes to make them the chief attraction of his vast gardens. It is believed in time his orchid collection will rival that of the J. B. Coryell's world famous collection.

Next Wednesday evening the members of the Ladies' Sodality will install officers for the term after which the members will hold a reunion and banquet. The ladies of the society hold this reunion annually and the affair is always an enjoyable one. All the members are invited to attend the event next Wednesday evening as the committee promises some new features.

Charles A. Pringle, the mining engineer, who was murdered by the Mexicans last Monday while on his way to his mine in Mexico, was a brother of E. J. Pringle of Atherton. The young man was a foot-ball player of note having played with the University of California team against Stanford on several occasions. He often visited his brother here and was well known in this community.

Miss Lydia Hopkins, who has been one of the most prominent amateur dog fanciers of society for some time, has entered the field as a professional and advertises her kennels at Sherwood Hall, Menlo Park, as a boarding place for dogs. She also sells "vermifuge, shampoo, flea exterminators, tonics and hair growers, cold and stomach remedies." This is the first time a society girl has gone so deeply into the dog business.

Mrs. E. S. Heller received on Wednesday a large consignment of rare shrubbery from the Holland gardens at the P. P. I. Exposition. She purchased the trees some time ago for her beautiful grounds surrounding her attractive home at Atherton. Quite a few of the varieties are strangers to this country never having grown here. It is thought they will thrive in this locality.

James Hullihan, for over five years the faithful sexton at the Church of The Nativity, suffered a stroke of paralysis on Tuesday afternoon. He was discovered in his room in a semiunconscious condition. He was at once removed to the Peninsula Hospital where he is being treated by Dr. L. E. Phillips. Everything possible is being done for the patient. He is an old man and for that reason the attack, which was a severe one, may prove fatal. He is in a critical condition. Mr. Hullihan in his day was a noted horseman. In the palmy days of the Stanford stock farm he was a trainer there and drove such noted trotters as Sunol and Palo Alto and others of less note. He also had charge of a string of trotters on the Macdonough stock farm. He was an authority on the racing record of all the fast trotters bred in California during the past fifty years.

Mr. Tichenor, president of the Carnation Milk Company, who is head of the concern to establish a similar plant on the Stanford ranch, is having the old Stanford home remodeled. When the work is completed it will be the permanent home of Mr. and Mrs. Tichenor and family. They are now residing at The Larkin Hotel at Palo Alto. Charles Wooster, who has resided in one of the cottages on the grounds will move today, after residing there for nearly a quarter of a century. He was the trusted coachman for Senator Stanford for a great many years prior to the Senator's death and was with him in the heyday of his power and influence at Sacramento. It was the wish of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford that Mr. Wooster should always remain on the ranch. But they have gone and perhaps their wishes will be disregarded. Mr. Tichenor has already begun the erection of a large barn to house two car-loads of well-bred Holstein cattle that arrived during the week from Oregon. It is said that the new concern will milk upwards of 1,800 cows on the ranch which is to be planted to alfalfa. Many men are to be employed to care for the large herd, while others are to be engaged in erecting buildings and constructing corrals and fences. The company is to manufacture its own cans for the product at the old winery not far from the residence. A spur track is to be constructed to the plant from which shipments are to be made to all parts of the world. The locating of the big concern so near Menlo Park means much for this community.

when you fire-up some Prince Albert in your old jimmy pipe or in a makin's cigarette. And you know it! Can't get in wrong with P. Word was received this week from Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schaberg, stating that they had left San Diego and were sojourning in Los Angeles. Mrs. Schaberg will remain in the southern metropolis for a week, while Mr. Schaberg will stay for a longer period. The latter's friends will be pleased to learn that he is very much improved in health. While at San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Schaberg met W. A. Clark, who will be remembered by many as a former resident of this city. He is a brother-in-law of Mrs. George H. Rice and Mrs. Sarah Wentworth. Mr. Clark celebrated his 87th birthday last week. He is still hale and hearty and says he has many active years ahead of him yet.
